Healing With Gems

Gem Therapy, an ancient practice in India, uses stones to cure diseases ranging from hallucinations to infertility.

From our innermost essence to our physical body, we are made of and nourished by a continuous flow of life force. This life force is a current of light which springs from the source of life itself. When it flows freely, we experience joy, vitality, and vibrant health. In the natural course of living, however, various blockages accumulate within this flow. These blockages create dark clouds within us, which obscure our radiance and give rise to disharmony, pain, and disease.

GEMSTONES EMBODY LIFE FORCE

Like us, the Earth is enlivened by life force. As the Earth was forming, life energy was infused into the planet's crystalline matrices. Thus, the Earth's gemstones came to embody and express the life force within the planet. The gemstones radiate their life force with great power. When used properly they can bring light into the areas of darkness and neutralize blockages within our being. As these blockages dissolve, the light of the life force can once again shine through to enliven, nourish, and heal us. Each type of gemstone expresses a different frequency; therefore addresses a different kind of blockage.

GEM THERAPY

The history of gemstone therapy dates back for thousands of years. It is known that the ancient Greeks, Egyptians, and Judaic cultures utilized gems for both healing and general enhancement of life, but it was the ancient Vedic culture of India that gave us the greatest inheritance of this knowledge. Ancient Indian texts on astrology also mention three main systems, Mani (gemstones), Mantra and Medicine, to cure disease and to remain healthy.

The Vedas have the greatest wealth of information on the metaphysical properties, as well as the physical properties, of gems and their correct application to enhance the lives of human beings. When choosing to wear a gemstone, it is important to consider one's overall astrological chart and to understand the synergy between the various planets. It is best to have a qualified astrologer prescribe the gem.

Gems help to improve the effects planets have on us. Gems are used in Oriental astrology to avert the negative influence of various planets or to increase their positive effects. According to the Vedic (Indian) or sidereal system of astrology, each sign of the zodiac is ruled by a planet, and each planet gives off cosmic vibrations and is related to certain gemstones. The gems absorb or reflect the planet's vibrations or rays. Wearing the proper gem can increase a planet's positive effect on the wearer because the gem acts as a filter that allows only positive vibrations to have influence.

Gems surround their wearer with an electromagnetic field. If a person is receiving a planet's negative rays, wearing the correct gemstone can counteract the bad effect and allow only the planet's positive effect to work on the person. Wearing a gemstone to counteract the malefic effect of a planet is like carrying an umbrella to avoid getting wet; the gemstone actually deflects a planet's negative rays.

It is important to note, however, that wearing the wrong gemstone can have a negative effect on the wearer too. Physical or mental problems may result. Great care should be taken when using a gemstone for therapeutic purpose.

As far as gem therapy is concerned, almost all the gems have some kind of medicinal properties. But the jewels that belong to the Navratna category are also famous for their medicinal properties, besides their divine virtues. Gemopathy, which means the treatment of a disease with the help of a gem, has been a popular system for centuries now. Here is a broad overview:

RUBY -

This gemstone represents the Sun and increases physical vitality and builds immunity. It has a positive effect on the heart. It reduces the chances of back pain, eye trouble, and peptic ulcer. Women are asked to avoid wearing it as it is said to destroy the body luster.

PEARL -

This gemstone represents the Moon and affects the mind and controls mental disorders like insomnia and poor memory. It gives peace of mind. It also controls diseases associated with the lungs, breast and heart, and is said to help those suffering from diabetes, piles, diarrhea and deficiency of calcium. Pearl is recommended for women as it increases facial glow and sexual vigor.

RED CORAL-

This gemstone represents the Mars and controls aggressive behavior. It may protect from accidents and injuries. It can help in controlling menstrual disorders. It also reduces the chances of miscarriage and helps in safe childbirth.

EMERALD -

This gemstone represents the Mercury and increases brainpower, intelligence, reasoning ability, communication, and Nature and Nurture oratory skills. It reduces passion and sexual desire. It can be used to control troubles related to asthma, bronchitis and skin.

YELLOW SAPPHIRE-

This gemstone represents the Jupiter and controls the functioning of liver, and helps cure jaundice, anemia, blood pressure and gastric troubles.

DIAMOND -

The gemstone represents the Venus and has a good effect on sex organs. It cures sexual weakness, kidney trouble and diabetes.

BLUE SAPPHIRE-

The gemstone represents the Saturn and has positive effect on the nervous and joint systems. It controls gastric troubles, gout, arthritis, heart problems, asthma, and pain in the legs. It increases stamina. It also improves fertility in women.

HESSONITE-

The gemstone represents Dragon's Head i.e. Rahu and controls indigestion, skin disease, insomnia and hysteria. It is helpful in the event of snake-bite, dog-bite and blood poisoning. It also controls undiagnosed diseases.

CAT'S EYE-

The gemstone represents Dragon's Tail i.e. Ketu and is very hot in nature. It can cure paralysis, mania, blood poisoning, malignant diseases and undiagnosed diseases.

HOW TO WEAR THE GEMSTONE

To have maximum effect, the gemstone chosen should be of good quality; the better the gem's quality, the more powerful its effect. Do not wear cracked or chipped gems, as they can have a very detrimental effect. The gem's size is also important. It is best that a precious stone be at least one carat; though two or more carats are better. Take the stone of the specified size and get it studded in the specified metal such that it touches the finger from below. Before you wear it, the gem has to be energized with rituals and mantras. To obtain full benefits effects of a stone, wear it on the specified day and time, as advised by your astrologer.

	Ruby	Heart disorders, hallucination, fear, confusion, eye disorders.
	Pearl	Blood disorders, mental instability, abdominal diseases.
	Coral	Insanity, epilepsy, coma, hallucinations and other brain disorders.
	Emerald	Loss of voice, insomnia, effects of poison, skin diseases.
	Yellow Sapphire	Lethargy, liver disorders, breast-related diseases.
	Diamond	Mouth diseases, impotency, loss of voice.
	Blue Sapphire	Insanity, abdominal disorders, infertility.

THE FORBIDDEN SECRETS TO INCREASE YOUR ATTRACTION

THE belief in the existence of personal powers which enables the possessor to attract, influence and control others, has been held by the race from the earliest days of written history. Many of the esoteric tantra scriptures hold references to this extraordinary mysterious power possessed by certain individuals, which enabled them to attract and influence others. In the present age, an era where possessing Attraction is not necessary, but mandatory. In present times very little is known about these esoteric enchantments. Quite often people contrast Attraction with Good looks, which is incorrect. Attraction and Good Looks are two different concepts. A person with good looks doesn't always attract attention. The desire to influence and gain attention from others is as appealing to men as it is to women. For men, this ability to influence can bring power, might, riches and happiness. For women, this ability can grant social recognition, popularity, happiness, and love.

DOES ATTRACTION MEAN BEING SIX FOOT TALL?

DOES IT MEAN BEING HANDSOME AND PHYSICALLY ATTRACTIVE?

Think Again....

FACT 1

ONE THING IS CERTAIN, EITHER YOU HAVE POWER OVER OTHERS, OR OTHERS WILL INFLUENCE YOU. THIS IS THE FIRST FACT THAT MUST BE UNDERSTOOD.

FACT 2

THE MANTRA YOU CHANT HAS SPECIFIC FREQUENCY, AND THE MOMENT YOU RECITE THE INTENT IS RELEASED INTO THE COSMOS TO BRING THE DESIRED OUTCOME INTO YOUR LIFE.

WHY CARE ABOUT POSSESSING ATTRACTION?

Because it really does have its privileges. You can see it all around you. People who possess Attraction and Magnetic Aura hold greater positions of power. Research shows that these people get special treatment from employers, strangers and even their potential mates . . . Without doubt, Good looks and wealth are forces to consider but, it is also a fact that attraction is a bit above all these. There are many celebrities who are just average looking, yet they command Attraction and mass following. It is not necessary to be physically beautiful to possess a strong persona and attraction.

Lord Krishna was said to be dark complexioned and yet the magnetic attraction that one felt in his presence was something beyond this world. To succeed in this world it is necessary to possess a magnetic and attractive persona. You might not be born with this virtue but through the power of Mantras you could instill a divinity in yourself that could make others feel overawed in your presence. The divine energy of Krishna Akarshan Amulet instills a unique confidence and radiance in you - making you star of every gathering and the center of attraction everywhere.

Due to huge large number of request, we are organizing the ritual for the second time since this Diwali. This time on (6th Dec 2010) a special ritual is scheduled to energize "Krishna Akarshan Amulet" which is powerful and unailing. It was by virtue of this ritual Lord Krishna was able to virtually attract, mesmerize and influence everyone who came into his contact. Whatever field you are in, this Amulet could come in handy as it aims to fill your life with charm and magnetism and bestow you the desired attention. When Krishna Akarshan Mantra is chanted in combination with Krishna Akarshan Amulet within few weeks its effect would manifest. People will pursue in a positive manner, the changing attitude of people around will prove you that the Amulet is working its charm.

IT'S BEEN PROVED NOW -

Studies have shown that people who command Attraction are more self-confident, more socially at ease, and less likely to worry about the negative opinions of others. They feel more in control of their lives and tend to be more forceful. It's not a coincidence that many highly successful, wealthy men and women tend to possess power to attract. While this can seem to be some kind of ridiculous good fortune—looks, money, and power: how lucky can one person be?—it's more likely that the inner persona is the prime ingredient that helps them get where and what they want.

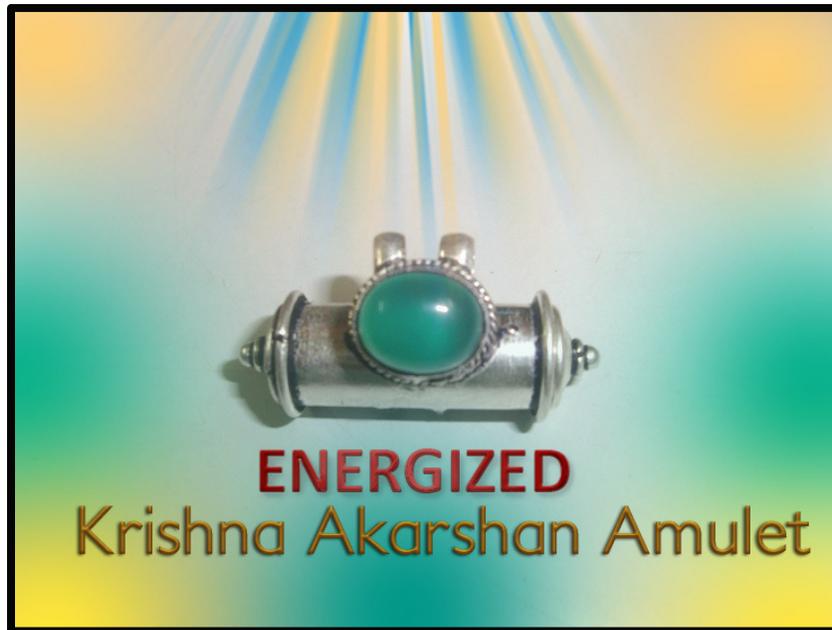

WILL THIS AMULET WORK FOR ME?

The Krishna Akarshan Kit works directly on molecular level. So when you chant the mantra, you merge with most divine energy. Every vibration has a corresponding sound and everything in the universe has a vibration and thus a sound. Each atom, molecule, cell and even the entire universe, has its own collection of vibrations and unique sound. Krishna Akarshan Amulet is composed of potent seed sounds (beej mantras), which directly work on inner layers. As you chant the Krishna Akarshan mantra, you merge with the sound vibration and become at one with the energy wavelength of the mantra. By chanting a mantra, your cells, molecules, atoms, and sub-atomic particles all vibrate in the same wavelength as the mantra. And this in turns manifest the desired results you seek. Once attuned with this vibration you connect with everything resonating on that plane of existence. As you can see, what's on the inside is deeply connected to what's on the outside. It's the inner appeal which can lead to external attraction.

TRATAK

The Flame of FOCUS

Tratak is a Sanskrit expression meaning to look or to gaze or stare. Tratak is a systematized practice of looking at an external object or concentrating in the mind's eye. Since ages Tratak is used by Yogis and Tantrics in the east as a way of developing concentration.

As per Sri Swami Sivananda –

"Tratak is one of the six purificatory exercises; it is mainly intended for developing concentration and mental focusing."

However improving concentration is just one aspect of Tratak. A systematic implementation of Tratak not only boosts the flow of psychic energy in eyes, but also immensely improves power of Vashikaran and Sammohan.

What is Yajna?

Let's understand the term Yajna or Yagya. Yagya is a Pure Vedic Ritual under which the learned Vedic Pundit makes sacred offerings to fire to please the specific deity. Every God or the Goddess possesses specific capabilities and powers to grant a desired benediction. As the deity is pleased with the Rituals the desired wish is bestowed to the person. In short, Yagya is an act to awaken forces of nature to manifest desired wish.

Every God has a specific Mantra and a Yagya Procedure. For instance "Kamdev Rati Yajna", Kama is the God of Attraction and Vashikaran. Kama and Rati rule the realm of Love, Romance and Attraction. When it comes to solving Relation issues Kamdev -Rati Yajna is the most sought after Yajna. These deities hold the powers to grant the desired wish and resolve issues pertaining to love life. Similarly each deity has its specific Yajna process.
